Happy birding! February 24 2010 Dale Forbes, Tirol, Austria just posted a blog with some photos of Grey and Olive Sunbirds taken in St Lucia a few months ago. We stayed in a wonderful flat with views out over the forest on to the ocean, it was called Ingwenya Lodge. Buttons of birds in the garden and a great spot for digiscoping.<http://www.birdforum.net/showthread.php?p=1744170> Warm and nice treatment! December 12 2009 Patrick & Nicole Haasjes, Netherlands Nicole and I like to say thanks for your hospitality during our stay in Ingwenya lodge. Say hi to Scooby and Nala. Kind regards and maybe till next year. Thank you! November 16 2009 Ari Economakis, South Africa We had a wonderful relaxing time and will recommend Ingwenya Lodge. Just wonderful! November 6 2009 Dorota Kardasz, Warsaw, Poland I really recommend Ingwenya Lodge if you plan to visit St. Lucia. The place is just wonderful - beautiful view, nice garden with a pool, comfortable rooms with big kitchens. There are plenty of birds and every morning I saw a kingfisher sitting on the branch just opposite my window. The hosts are very friendly and you really feel like visiting old friends, when you are there. The house is situated in a very peaceful area, at the end of the road, so you can hear only birds and frogs there. However, you are still close to the city centre - only 10 minutes walk to the main street of St Lucia. We spent there 3 days and I wish to be back to this place again. Breathtakingly beautiful! October 20 2009 Karl & Tia Kremnitzer, South Africa We would like to thank you for the wonderful stay at Ingwenya lodge, it was breathtakingly beautiful and peaceful. We will definitely come again and will also recommend Ingwenya lodge to all our friends and family. Wonderful stay! October 20 2009 Zoe Lazarus, South Africa I just wanted to thank you very much, on behalf of all of us, for a wonderful stay at your lodge. Nala and Scoobie were so upset when their friends left, but I consoled them with a little treat. Thanks again for everything. Perfect! October 8 2009 Sifiso Khanyile, South Africa Everything was perfect! We both enjoyed our stay. Thank you!

As mens daar is, vergeet jy vir 'n oomblik van als hier in die stad & die "rush". Sal julle plekkie definitief vir enigeen aanbeveel in die toekoms & self definitief weer besoek. Groete.

Relaxing, July 1 2009 Viola Coxen, Durban, South Africa

We were stressed out when we arrived but Ingwenya Lodge really helps you to relax and gives you a holiday feeling. The beds were very comfortable and the veranda has beautiful sea views. The Lodge also has a beautiful new swimming pool with night lights. Everything was very nice and it is the perfect place to stay if you want to go to Cape Vidal or the Umfolozi/Hlululuwe Game Reserve or see the Hippos & Crocs at St Lucia....

You can go walking along the lagoon or go to the center without fear. The lodge is very well placed and very well equipped. In addition, Barend booked for us a morning safari, a boat trip and gave us lots of good advice (visits, restaurants, ...). Everything was perfect.

Just a wanted to drop you a line to say thanks - we had such a great time while staying at Ingwenya Lodge a couple of weeks ago. It was the best part of a great honeymoon, in fact. We loved our Nyalazi house, it had everything we wanted, and are grateful to you for so much helpful advice about St Lucia and even in planning our onward journey. (We took your advice and got to Drakensberg fast!) So thanks very much, I only hope we can visit again soon.

Stay at Ingwenya Lodge, September 25 2007 Ms Botes, South Africa

Comfortable accommodation. Kept very clean, really felt spoilt not having to do dishes or clean the braai. Lovely view with quiet surroundings and close to all facilities. File in unit with all the happenings and things to do in St Lucia, no need to visit the Tourist information.

Ingwenya review, September 14 2007 Ms Douglas, South Africa

The Hluhluwe unit was very comfortable and had a great view. The cleanliness of the unit needs particular mention, and the braai was spotless. The staff were friendly and very helpful. The bird life was wonderful. We had an excellent 3 night stay and will return if we are ever in St Lucia again.

St Lucia town itself was most impressive, with really excellent restaurants and no obvious litter. We are proud that it shows itself off so well to all the foreign tourists we saw there.

Peaceful Ingwenya, August 26 2007 anonymous, Ireland

Set in the leafy suburbs of St, Lucia, Ingwenya Lodge was a peaceful haven away from the busy centre of the town. The Mfolosi unit which we had was perfectly located; beside the pool which kept the children happy and with views over the tropical forest to the distant coast for the adults to rest their eyes. The unit was very spacious for a family of 6. The hosts were very helpful and friendly.

Tranquility and serenity at In, October 31 2006 Ms Hauser, South Africa

Upon arriving at Ingwenya Lodge, we recieved a very warm welcome from our hosts and were were pleasantly surprised at the the wonderful view that we had from our flatlet.
We immediately felt the tranquility and peacefulness of the area and the loft-feel of our establishment complimented it even more.
From the upstairs we could easily view the magnificence of the ocean as well as the estuary-what a pleasure to wake up to this view every morning!
The place was very easy to find and situated in a lovely nature-filled environment.
It was definitely a pleasure to experience Ingwenya Lodge as well as the wonderful hospitality that was offered.
Will definitely consider booking in with them again!!
